PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW YOL-

The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading have just been received.—for sale by community, it is believed, have been whole-

Tuesday of January. 1336, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than tharty puerite attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its periodoxia and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental fanquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a and intel- exertions taken mo of public resort, this publication formshes a nextness and embelishment—will be materially advancement valuable desideration, supplying politic ed.

The different Plays and Firees that will appear in the curve of a rear, of themselves, will be worth more the chitrs, himself a ready from inclination of the editor, himself a ready from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procure-most of works of a new test of the procure-most of works of an advanced to the procure-chiment of works of an edward standard of in-tellect which may be admitted into every finily without hesitation by the most fastifrmily without hesitation by the most lasti-dious, and necome rallying point for all its members, promoting social belies lettres read-ing and conversation. The viriety thus col-jected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memors of extraordinary individuals, and curious ad-venture fite. No. An amount qual to fifty Londor modecimo opiones is thus annually farmined in weekly admors, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan-try embraces the whole range of popular lit-efuture, and the work his now become so uni-versally diffused in every part of the Union versally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable part on of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has been no really necessary to those who mix in society.

The Labrary as now conflucted disseminates books to all parts of the country in fron | s five to six weeks after their issue in London. De Five dollars per amount expended in this way will supply good recoing for a whole circle or family, for a sent and a half a day, postage included, a do decreas now is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Roes's Cyclopedia. One volume of the Lib ary, containing from fitter to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense fittle exceeding that of binding offier separately, one constitutes a concentrated collection forming a new or failing resource of amusement and instance of antiag resurce of amusement and instance of which must always be worth the for it. The most ample estimator has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the post ore of thousands, who, but for the resource been left with min to une gied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or file hi-tiessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the ma-

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per an num, or clubs of five individuals outain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and a-musement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, 82 50, postage paid.

s. A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original aubscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three riod. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual that now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this an amount of thatter may be procured which public approbation has atamped as truly valuable and unique for its This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
Seventh, two doors south of Chemut street, Philad.

for 819 000 ttct. te

SPLENDID French, Italian, German, British and Ameri-

F. M. JARBOE.

SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION,

OR, 11th
SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION,
Intersperaed with a multitude of Engravings, including Portraits of celebrard Winning Horses, Philosophical and Nutural Phanomens, Logerdemain, &c.

It is now six months since this publication was commenced in Philadelphin—and although the publishers have used no extranoms means to circulate a knowledge of its merits, yet such is the satisfaction manifestethy it at portion of the public who have been made required with its character and contents, that its list of parons continues constantly and rapidly to increase.
This paper is now distributed regularly every week over a wide portion of the Union, and the most satisfactory assurances are received that it will eventually become one of the most popular among the numerous excellent period-vals which issue from the American press. No executions will be spared to establish its permanent repu-

Charles the First, Is She a Brigond, Tro Hunchback, The Dop. Deep Sea, Miss Matters, R. P. Santh,
J. S. Knowles,
J. R. Plunche,
F. Reynolds,
C. A. Somerset,
R. P. Smith,
J. S. Knowles, Cheap Living, Shirt search Early Days, Henri Quitte, Bugger of Bathnal Green, Husban's and Wives, Man of Ten Thousand, Thomas Holcroft.

William E. Burton.
Mrs. Inchbald.
Benjamin Webster.
F. M. Reynolds.
Planche & Dance. The Golden Farmer, Special stion, Olympic Levils, Englishman it India, W. T. Moncrioff. M. G. Lewis. hakespeare Festival,

My Friend the Governor, J. R. Planche. H. M. Milner. Victorine,
The Camibus,
The Child of Nature,
The Remontre,
The Duel,
The Steters, Mrs. Inchbald. R. B. Peake.

W. Barrymore.
Lambet Jennedy.
assador, the favourite an aned by the publishers, and will be pub-

Special Intelligence, at home and abroad, oc cupies a considerable portion of our columns, and is a direct above the root authentic sources. Among the Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest. The American Tretting Horse, Resemper.

The Imported Recing Horse, Messenger.
The favourite Rucing Marc, Ariel, and her foal, by
The favourite Rucing Marc, Ariel, and her foal, by
The favourite Rucing Marc, Ariel, and her foal, by

Haal's celebrated Trotting Horse, Norfolk Phenome

The well known English Race Horse, Touchstone, A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the width of seven solumns. Arnong a variety of other Embellishments of subjects of interest, which have been published, are the follow ing:

A complete Treatise on Riding, with fourteen Illustrations, for the improvement of Ladies in that most healthy of all exercises.

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illustrated by eleven engravings.

trated by eleven engravings.

The surjects which are particularly embraced in the Vade Meclin, will be more distinctly understood from the following summary of them:

The Turr and all matters connected therewith. On the Structure and Character of the Horse. On the Improvement of Horned Cattle.

Rules for Novices in Shooting.

Methods for Feeding and Training Dogs.

Biographies of celebrated Horses, with their Portraits.

raits.

Hunting, Fishing, Fowling, &c.

Approved Gimes, from Hoyle and others.

Criticisms on Plays and Actors.

The most popular Songs, set to music.

The art of Legerdemain illustrated.

A variety of Recipes adapted to Domestic Economy.

An Epitome of important passing events.

Gentlemen's Quarterly Review of the Fashions.

The Vade Mecum is printed on large imperial paper, of a beautiful white texture, and is published every Saturday, at Three Dollars per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage paid, will be promptly attended to, and the paper carefully packed to provent it from rubbing by mail.

Subscribers to the Vade Mecum are entitled to a deduction of one-third. An order for four setts will be thankfully received, and the work forwarded to any direction, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage paid.

direction, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage paid.

A premium, consisting of two volumes, 500 pages each, of the Novelists Magazine, containing eight different Novels, by the most popular authors, will be presented to the Agent, who shall procure four names to the Modern Acting Drams, or the Gentlemen's Vade Mecam, and remit the amount of one year's subscription for each.

Gentlemen wishing to subscribe to either of the a-ore works, will address CHARLES ALEXANDER, Vo. 3, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place—Philadel-hit. July 30.

CASH FOR

ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES, Including both sexes, from 10 to 35 years of PERSONS having likely Servants to dispose of, and wishing the high-est prices, will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to buyand give higher prices than any o ther purchaser, who is now or may come into this market. T can at all times be found at The Museum of Foreign Litenature Mr. James Hunter's Tavern, in Annapolis.

Ann Sorewor, price 86-06 per annum, the All communications directed to me will be Library and Port Folio, will be, all supplied to imptly attended to.

Aug. 27-6me

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LI-

our agency, without an extension of the plan.
To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general tables and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have reason to believe has afforded general tables affo The fourth year will commence on the first THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM; nat of Belles Lettres was added; which we intended to supply. While reading for the flier religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certain interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly comed under the deagnation of Magaziniana, interesting, entertaining, and instructive despensed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the 'Library' designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, he choicest contributions to Magazinians to Magazinians and elegance of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, he choicest contributions to Magazinians and elegance of the found will be found to the foun brary" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines. Sec. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of Catholic community and the rapidly increase. Library" will be offered to the patronage of Catholic community; and the rapidly increasthe present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such pectation that it will meet with sufficient enterprise the "Journal," and the "Companion," such pectation that it will meet with sufficient enterprise the sufficient enterpri an acquaintance with the literature of the couragement to enable him to conduct it sucage may be cultivated as to leave little fur-ther to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for sub-ing entirely in the liberality and generosity the same office, more facility offers for sub-scribing, and having fewer people to deal of his fellow Catholics of the United States lication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies. The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "Companion" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.

2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library-each number containing sixteen pages-thus, every six months, giving thir-teen numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size

3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber-five dollars for two-and clubs ive and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.

4. As the work will not be commenced. inless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no nayment is required at present, only the ame, sent free of postage. Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On he issuing of the second number payment will be expected, as its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the rdvantages to the public of the rapid liffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to ake it or not. It is confidently believed, that, with the lready at hand the material for such a work, sion. all the really valuable matter of the English postage. Payment always in advance.

Payment always in advance of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Protestant Churchs; Teight on a ching in the interpretations of the Protestant Churchs; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; the first volum judge of the difference between an octavo leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the 'Library' and 'Companion' both, will obtain the two for six dollies, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety-five cents, divided into seventy, eight payments, and half that sum for the works impossible to obtain many of the works. tholic Works, which could be siness, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphis, while the same matter, in the usual delphis, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magaal and elegant Periodical for the uncommon of the shortest notice, either in the usual magaal to the shortest notice, either in the usual magaal of the shortest notice, and the shortest notice is the shortest delphis while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magaazines in octavo form would be eighteen dol-lars, and the postage as three to one. We

Companion, will

The proprietor trusts that his punctuality

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICA-TION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original proprietors for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the frequent handling tending considerably the most ample success has attended the most ample success has attended the large with the proprietor of a rapid transportation by mail. The above peantiful collection of articles are most ample success has attended the large with the proprietor of the most ample success has attended the large with the proprietor of the most ample success has attended the large with the frequent handling tending considerably our agency, without an extension of the plan.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodical Library and the cheapness of the best Catholic Ports in the Coatholic Por with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and and the Canadas has resolved to put it more readily corrected when they do. The press forthwith; and he therefore throws himshort interval of two weeks between the pub- self on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally en-couraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will expowerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:
The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fitty page ach, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be is sued on Saturday. November 7th .- Terms of subscription 84 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a listance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one cultural community, in the cheapest practi-

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and ttention on the part of the Editor, who has which will follow each other in rapid succeschurch; Perpetuity of the Fatth; Dr. M's Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Perpetuity of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the Latth of the La ed; and able translators will be provided for be taken either with or without the Libra- all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y. and exactness in executing his part of the Editors of Papers in the country by giving contract in the publication of the Library, the above a few insertions, and sending the will be considered a sufficient guarantee of papers containing it to the publisher, will enthe completion of his proposed undertaking title themselves to a copy of the work for one year. NEW GOODS.

GEORGE MONDIR

MERCHANT CAILOR,

AS just received, and is may opening at his new establishment, second door from his former place of business, a large and general assortment of

Cloths, Cassimers and Vesting; selected in Philadelphia and Baltimore, with the greatest care. He invites his friends and the public to give him a fail.

Sept. 17—IL.

NOTICE. WAS committed to the Juil of Anne Area-del county on the 23d day of Sep-tember, a yellow man; who calls himself

TallE undersigned has removed his Office to the upper end of Corn Hill street, oppo-site the State House, and hear the Post Office, where he will, on very reasonable terms, pre-pare Deeds, Mortgages, Manumissions, Bills of Sale, Letters of Attorney, and the unfortunate Insolvent Papers.

GIDEON WHITE.

ADVERTISEMENT.
THE undersigned Commissioners appeinted by Saint Mary's County Court to value and divide the Real Estate of Colonel. Enoch J. Millard, deceased, late of St. Marry's county, accurding to the provisions of the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided, do hereby give notice to all concerned, that we shall meet at John L. Millard's residence on the premises at Holkham, on MONDAY, the 14th day of December next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoor, to procoed in the business for which we are arpointed.

CLEMENT McWILLIAMS. ENOCH NEALE, JAMES A. MORGAN.

FOR ANNAPOLIS, EASTON AND CAMBRIDE.

The MARYLAND will go to Annapolis, Cam-bridge (by Castle Haven) and Easton on every Tues-day and Friday morning, leaving Baltimore at 7 o'clock, from the low er end Dugan's wharf, her usual place of stattng.

N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk
LEM'L. G. TAYLOR. April SO.

THE CULTIVATOR

Is a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, and comprises about 200 pages in a volume, published at Albany, by the New York State Agricultural Society. It is exclusive-ly devoted to Agriculture and the Improve-ment of Youth. The publishing committee are J. Buel, J. P. Beekman, and J. D. Was-son. The object of the publication is to disseminate useful information, among the agricable form; and the success of the undertaking, and the character of the paper, are indicated by the fact, that before its 1st volume was completed its subscribers exceeded eleven thousand, and comprised residents of twenty one of the United States.

The second volume was commenced in Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in March. The pages are so enlarged, that each number contains as much matter as

Aug. 27.

FUNERALS.

A THE subscriber begge leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making Business and internal to the Cabinet Making Business and internal for the io rs that his panimpiness and attention will continue to merit their favour. WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

PRINTING Neatly executed at this DFF1UM.

VOL, XC.

Printed and Published JONAS GREEN, At the Brick Building on the Circle.

Price-Three Dollars per a WILLIAMIBRY

MERCHANT TAILO RESPECTFULLY tenders his his customers, and the public and informs then that he has just and has now arranged for show, a assurtment of fashionable

FALL AND WINTER GO Including CLOTHS, CASSIME shot which he will be happy to mak most reasonable terms. Lawing by two to business, tried to give sati all, he assures his friends that his please snalt be unmirennished. He handsome assorment of STOCAS AND COLLAR which he will soil very low.

PROSPECTUS Upper strong, France George Mirjand, a weekly journal, to be o

THE SELLETIN. In undertaking the support in an accordance to make the subscribitions to the subscribitions to testing, his hope of ultrace to testing, his hope of ultrace to testing, his hope of ultraces finus not its origin in sangular praceeds from the subscription of a large and wealthy control of the subscription of a large and wealthy control on the State sited equi-distant from the State final capitals, faccities of an eari meation of whatever may interest i are particularly afforded to the E though he may not hope to pres friends much foreign information t melian of his columns, not deriv ther journals, it is still certain the grace of a local nature, interesti unable, will by this means be com It will also ofter to those whose me adequate to the expense of the la tals, at least a synoptical view of portant information they contain times find in its columns, articles tay of the employment of their le the plan of every publication which its success in popular support, mu exposed before public patronage of petted, the Editor would here ma line of his design, with the full that it will constitute an ordeal, b termine both its merit and the its prosecution. The Editor proposes to adapt his p wishesof those by whom he is immeranded, and among whom ne muly find a majority of his patrons:

them to be intelligent and inqui them to be interriged; and there schools regarded, and the most donestic and toreign periodicals for celles lettres notices. He knows e patriotic, and that they feel a de is the welfare of our common co gratify this sentiment to the extent my, his columns shall afford whate gence of a political character may ted to interest them. No man, we cally of thought, is at this crisis ne ference to the party distinctious n ing in this country, and the Editor d a opposition to the measures of Administration. But having neith er nor the mutive of a partisan, hi pon party movements shall be ch byfrankness of argument, not viole itnever become his habit to deal rective or party virulence. felly lend the aid of his columns t tation from all parties-reserving pe privilege of rejecting such as ting lefor personal allusion or ind tuge. In addition to the advant propriate solitical and literary set rests alse to tempt into exercise native talent may surround him, an aids he may not pro-jumptuously ho his paper useful and interesting but the patronage of his friends his efforts merit and repay it; as he to ove that favour to personal fee rould be denied to his editorial la The Bollerin will be published by in each week. Terms of subs

WILLIAM H. Upper Marlbro', Feb. 14, 1834 FOR CHESTERTOWN AN TREVILLE.

Baltimore, o'clock. for ad Chestertown, starting from th Duran's wharf, and return the sai N. B. - All baggage at the ow April 80.